

American Legion Application

Welcome to the Post 435 Gun Club! In order to join the Gun Club, you must also be a Member of American Legion Post 435. Applicants understand that they may be asked by Post 435 to demonstrate proof of eligibility at any time after submitting their application. New Members must be eligible to join and must complete and sign the form below.

American Legion Eligibility

Any person (Male or Female) who served at least one day of active duty in the military during any date after Dec 7, 1941 and who is either still serving honorably or has been honorably discharged, is eligible.

Family Membership Option: Post 435 Gun Club Memberships are Family Memberships. If your Spouse, regardless of his or her gender, is eligible for ANY American Legion organization, then you can become a Family Member of the Post 435 Gun Club once your Spouse has enrolled in a Legion Organization and the Post 435 Gun Club.

Need or Want to Prove Your Eligibility? To obtain Military Records on Department of Defense form DD-214, you need to submit a form SF-180 to the appropriate military service office. You can get a SF-180 form from any Gun Club Officer, or go on-line and get one at the U.S. Archives Website: http://www.archives.gov/facilities/mo/st_louis/military_personnel_records/standard_form_180.html
