Small Bore
Program.

What is Highpower Rifle competition?

Also called "Across the Course" (ATC or XC) Highpower Rifle is shot with "Service Rifles", which include the AR15, M1 Garand and the M14 (M1-A) or "Match Rifles" which include any center fire rifle capable of holding 5 rounds with metallic (non-optical) sights.

Competitors fire on varying sized bullseye style targets depending on position and are allowed 2 sighting shots per position.

Shooting Positions

Offhand: 200 yards

(Standing with no support for the rifle)
Is shot in slow fire fashion, the rounds are loaded and fired one at a time. You have 10 minutes for 10 shots.

Sitting: 200 yards

Is shot in Rapid fire fashion. Shooters start from standing, when the targets come up the shooter has 60 seconds to get into sitting position and fire 10 shots. (shots are fired, 2 shots, reload, 8 shots)

Prone: 300 yards

At 300 yards the prone position is shot in rapid fire fashion. As in sitting, the shooters start out standing and when the targets come up the shooter has 70 seconds to get into position and fire 10 shots. (two shots, reload, 8 shots)

Prone: 600 yards

At 600 yards the prone position is fired in slow fire fashion. Loading and firing on shot at a time, the shooter has 20 minutes to fire 20 shots.

Note:

Post 435 matches are shot on appropriate sized targets reduced for 200 yards

Equipment needed.

Besides a rifle you will need 58 rounds of ammunition, 50 shots for record and 8 for sighting shots (2 per position).

Two magazines, enblock or stripper clips (for reloading during rapid fire stages).

Shooting Glasses and Ear protection.

Recommended equipment

A rifle sling, shooting mat, shooting coat, shooting glove, spotting scope and stand, extra magazines, enblock or stripper clips, bug juice, water and maybe a snack

We have loaner rifles and equipment!

Come, compete and make new friends!
Learn from fellow competitors and perhaps become a National Champion.

You can do this!

Spectators are welcome but must stay behind the firing line and wear eye and ear protection.
